Wisconsin Alliance of Artists and Craftspeople

strives to promote the rich fabric of arts found in Wisconsin.

Formed in 1980, WAAC is a statewide organization with approximately 400 members consisting of fine artists and fine craftspeople.

Promoting Art Fair Off the Square and Winter Art Festival

WAAC produces two art fairs each year: Art Fair Off The Square takes place on the second weekend in July. It is located on the 200 block of Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard and Olin Terrace, Madison (the walkway to the Monona Terrace Convention Center.)

The Winter Art Festival takes place on the second weekend of November. It is located at the Monona Terrace Convention Center in Madison.

Both art fairs are open to Wisconsin exhibitors only. Exhibitors are selected by a jury of professional artists. All exhibitors must be members of WAAC.

Supporting Young People in the Arts

WAAC encourages young artists by providing funding for various educational programs. WAAC incorporates childrens' events into its art fairs, such as The Young Collector's Corner at the Winter Art Festival.

The Art Fair Off The Square activities include a participatory art project where young people create a community art project. As part of WAAC's continuing public education, the WAAC website, www.artcraftwis.org, contains an informational page to educate the public about a variety of media.

Providing Information and Instruction for WAAC Members

WAAC members receive WAAC WORDS, a newsletter which features information on the art fairs, WAAC's winter workshops and opportunities available to artists and craftspeople. Subsequent to review and approval of content, members may request a link from the WAAC web site to their own.

Artists' workshops such as marketing, legal issues, and other artist related topics are offered periodically in the beginning of the year. The annual member meeting is in March or April. WAAC public art showings are open to members.
